

GOLF IN CYPRUS

With its combination of sun, sea, excellent greens and perfect climate, Cyprus is the ideal year-round golf destination, offering 18-hole courses, club houses, practice facilities and individual lessons. Cyprus' 18-hole par 72 courses are ranked amongst the best in the Mediterranean, covering an area of around 6120 metres they are set at 5000 metres above sea level guaranteeing cool breezes and magnificent views of the sea.

Tsada Golf Club

Situated close to Tsada village just 20 minutes drive north of Paphos, this 18-hole course set in the grounds of a 12th century monastery was created by Donald Steel, it plays to par 72 and measures 6060 metres.

Secret Valley Golf Club

The Secret Valley course is conveniently located 18 km east of Paphos and 49 km from Limassol close to Petra tou Romiou, legendary birthplace of Aphrodite. This 18-hole course plays to par 71 and measures 5904 metres.

Aphrodite Hills

This world-class championship-standard 18-hole course plays to par 71/70 and boasts a 350 metre double-ended driving range, a three-hole academy and superb short game facilities. The total course length is 6299 metres with 7 being the signature hole and one of the most spectacular par 3s in Europe.

Island Cove, Adventure Mini Golf, Paphos

Situated off Poseidonas Avenue close to the Cypria Maris and Ledra Beach Hotels, this cleverly designed American 18-hole mini course is beautifully landscaped and provides great entertainment and challenging play for all ages.